

PRESS RELEASE: Temple Beth Sholom of Framingham welcomes Rabbi Ben Einsidler as its next Rabbinic leader commencing July 1, 2024.

July 1, 2024

"I am delighted to be joining Temple Beth Sholom this summer and am honored to serve as this holy community's next rabbi. Throughout the interview process my family and I were very touched by TBS' warm welcome, hospitality and commitment to Jewish life, and I very much look forward to getting to know the congregation better over the summer and beyond."

Rabbi Ben Einsidler was ordained as a Rabbi at Hebrew College in Boston, where he previously earned Master's degrees in Jewish Education and Jewish Studies. He has served communities at Brandeis University Hillel, Temple Shalom Emeth of Burlington, and Temple Aliyah of Needham. Rabbi Einsidler completed a unit of Clinical Pastoral Education as part of the chaplaincy team at Beverly Hospital and participated in fellowships with Hadar, the iCenter, and the Shalom Hartman Institute. Prior to attending rabbinical school, he taught Judaics at JCDS Boston.

About Temple Beth Sholom

Founded in 1885, Temple Beth Sholom is an egalitarian Conservative congregation affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism. The Temple serves about 130 families in the Metro West Boston area.

Press Contacts

Stacy Edinburg, President of Temple Beth Sholom, Framingham MA. 508-877-2540

president@beth-sholom.org